How To DRAW

NO EATING FROM THAT BASKET, YOGI!

POSING'S HUNGRY WORK!

YOGI BEAR

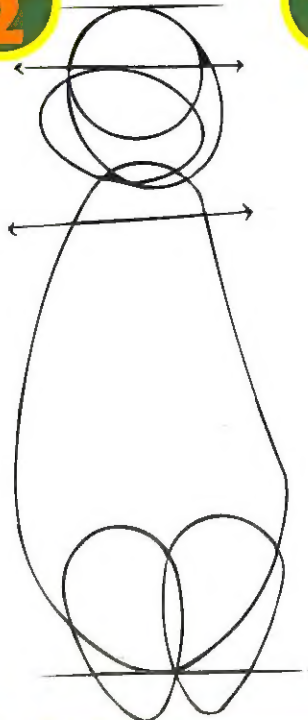

This month we show you how to draw your favourite pic-a-nic basket stealing bear! Turn to page 46 for more top drawing tips!

STEP 1

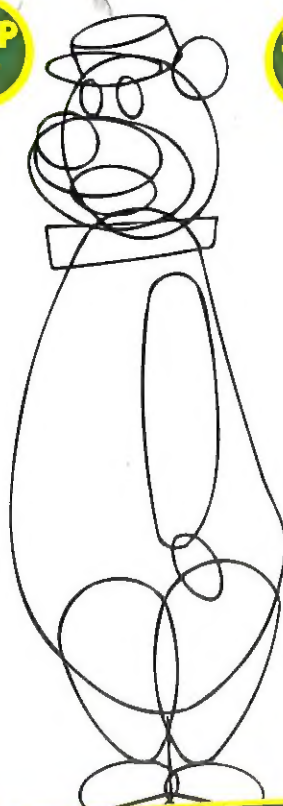

Calculate the height of Yogi by drawing 5 circles as above.

STEP 2

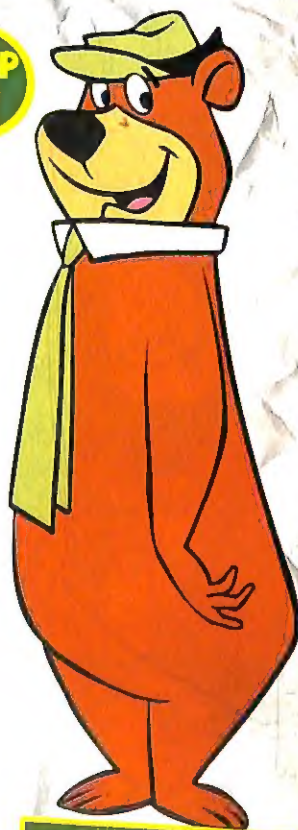

Next draw 4 horizontal lines to decide where the head, body, and legs will go. Now you can shape the body.

STEP 3

Add the facial features, eyes, nose, hat, finishing with Yogi's collar. Notice his hands meet the top of his legs. Don't forget his feet.

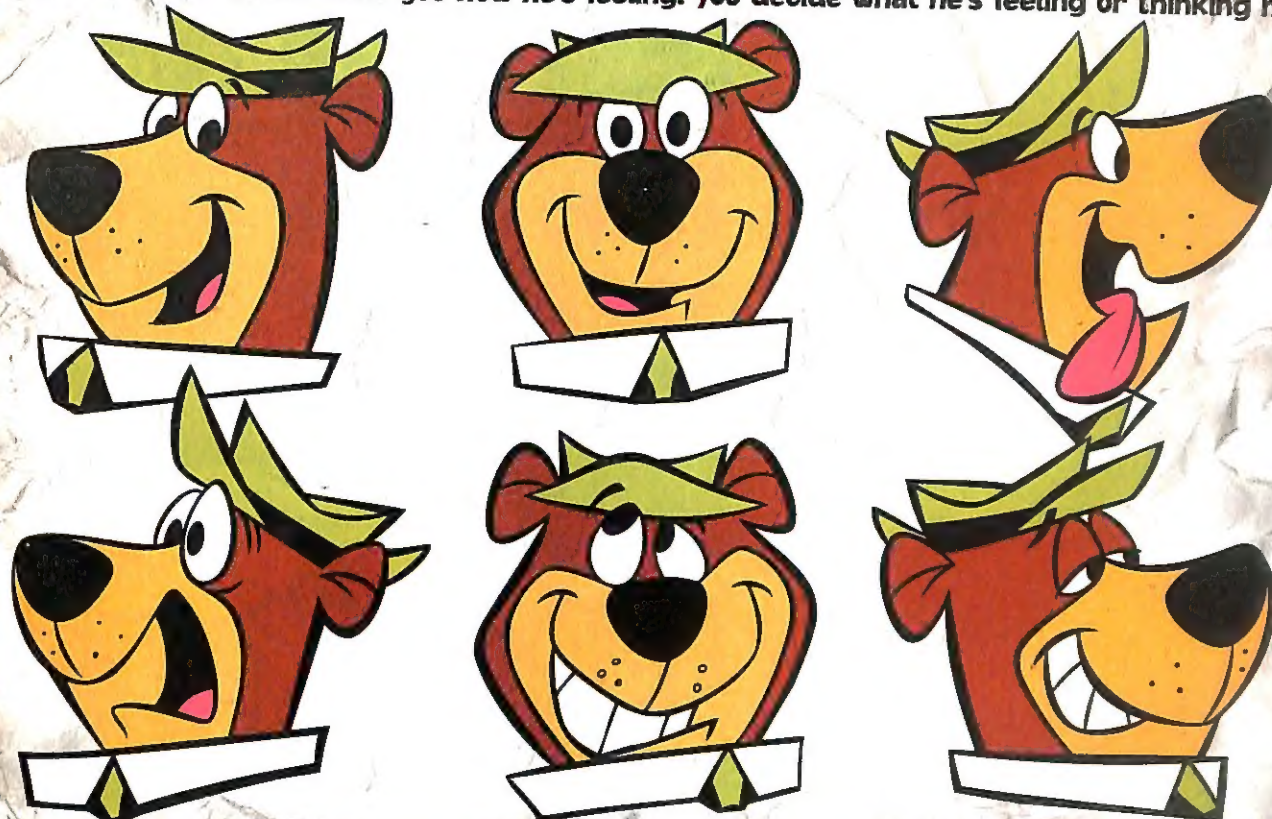

STEP 4

Finally, add all the finishing details: the fingers, tie, mouth, pupils in his eyes, and colour.

POSES:

Yogi's facial expressions show you how he's feeling. You decide what he's feeling or thinking here!

The best way to know how to draw a character is to watch or read about them as much as possible! So keep watching Cartoon Network, buy this magazine and practise, practise, practise!

LIKE YER
WHEELS, MAN!

BEING A HIP AND HAPPENING GUY, CHICKEN WANTS TO GET A BIT OF THE BMX ACTION. HE'S TRACKED DOWN A STUNT RIDER TO FIND OUT MORE ABOUT BMX BALLETICS...

Hey man, I'm here for the action. Who is you?

I'm Zach Shaw and I'm a rider and team manager for GT Bikes. I attend shows in Europe and the UK, and enter BMX competitions across the world.

Wow! Dat sure is a lotta stuff to do. You must really love your bike. Can you remember your first set of wheels?

My first bike was too big for me. I could ride it, but then I'd fall off.

My sister Cow has the same problem, but dat's because her butt is too big for the seat. When'd you get the dough to buy a BMX bike?

I'd live on toast and use my dinner money to buy parts and fix up my bike.

Now you is this big famous stunt rider and all, but when was you thinking hey, I can do this when I grow up?

When my parents told me I couldn't! They locked my bike in the shed and they told me to concentrate on school, that's when I decided I definitely wanted to be a stunt rider.

What kinda tricks can I start with?

Well, it's important to wear all the correct safety gear first. You might want to start out with a wheelie (pulling the front wheel off the ground and riding about on the back wheel only), or a bunnyhop (like a wheelie, but hopping on the spot).

I know I can do that. What's the most amazing trick you has ever done?

A trick I invented called the Zach Flip, which is a back flip with a full 360° twist on a bike. There's only one other person in the world that can do it.

HEY ZACH, YOU WANNA HIRE A TEAM MASCOT? I CAN SING AND DANCE AND...

ZACH? WHERE'D HE GO? COME BACK HERE!

How To DRAW

You've read pages 10 and 11 on how to draw Yogi, now here are a few tips on how to create a funky leaf pattern!

Most of the leaves have fallen off the trees so go out and collect a load! Make sure they're clean and dry. Then paint one side with as bright a paint as you can find and press the paint side down onto a piece of paper. Repeat this with several leaves of different sizes and shapes, and using different coloured paints. When you've covered the paper, leave it to dry. Then you can use it as a poster, wrapping paper or a background for your pictures of Yogi!

Every little helps.

Send us a letter or a picture at: HOME P@GE: Cartoon Network, PO Box 43, Oldham, OL4 1FJ. If we print your picture here you'll win a prize! These pictures win a pair of Cuddlies each! Next issue's pictures win the Cartoon Network Annual!

Horoscopes

HELLO, TO ALL YOU UNSCIENTIFIC FOLK OUT THERE, I, PROFESSOR UTONIUM, WILL TELL YOU WHAT THE FUTURE HOLDS. (THIS IS AS SCIENTIFIC AS ASTROLOGY GETS!)

AQUARIUS

20 JAN - 18 FEB

Your experiments show signs of coming to a useful conclusion this month. If you keep meticulous notebooks any mishap now will be no problem. Your lucky Radioactive Half-Life is 115.6 years.

PISCES

19 FEB - 20 MARCH

With the Periodic Table on the cusp it looks like a time of accidents and clumsiness especially on Tuesday afternoons. However if the worst does occur then get that nasty chemical stain out of your lab coat by using salt.

ARIES

21 MARCH - 19 APRIL

A freak bombardment of cosmic Fuzzionic Particles heralds a new start for you. Either it blasts your lab to smithereens or it turns you into a mutant monster. It's one of the two.

TAURUS

20 APR - 20 MAY

Your lucky Field of Science this month is: Otology, the Scientific Study of Ears. That's it.

GEMINI

21 MAY - 20 JUNE

Now is the time to take up that new hobby you've been wanting to try. But beware, World Domination can be trickier than it looks.

CANCER

21 JUNE - 22 JULY

With your big head, large eyes and little body you're pretty gross, but that's only how you look to insects. Unless you really do look like that, in which case a long and profitable career on medical TV programmes beckons.

LEO

23 JULY - 22 AUG

You finally achieve a big experimental breakthrough, unfortunately, it happens in a dream and you will forget it when you wake up. You will have to toil for another twenty five years before you find success.

VIRGO

23 AUG - 22 SEPT

Your precise and pnickety mind makes you perfect for a career in science. Study hard, do your homework and you, too, could wear the White Lab Coat of the Scientist.

LIBRA

23 SEPT - 22 OCT

Look out around the full moon. A leaky biro could ruin your favourite lab coat. Your lucky Periodic Table Element is Tellurium.

SCORPIO

23 OCT - 21 NOV

It's a little known fact that most home accidents take place in the Lab - ask Dr Jekyll and Dr Frankenstein. So make sure your Health & Safety Certificate is up to date. Your lucky Atomic Number is 53.

SAGITTARIUS

22 NOV - 21 DEC

Confusion this month when you clone yourself by mistake and can't remember which one of you is the original. You worry that you are going mad. But it will all sort itself out when you find that you didn't clone yourself at all and you really are just mad.

CAPRICORN

22 DEC - 19 JAN

You are kidnapped by an evil gang who want you to build them a Trans-Horological Peragrination Module, or would if they could say it properly. Be glad that Science is full of long words that only Properly Trained Scientists can pronounce.

THE Jetsons™ SOCIAL DIARY

WHAT JUDY DID TODAY!

I've had a lovely week, I've been shopping, clubbing and more shopping! Usually on a Tuesday I go to aerobics with Betty Rubble, but this week she couldn't make it. What's a girl to do when she's time on her hands? Go shopping! I fancied a new, sparkly little number for my night out at the CN club.

Mum and I went to all the best designers - Posh de Glam, Frilly FooFoo Pompadour. Finally I bought a long, pink and fluffy dress from my absolute favourite designer Patricia Pinker. Whilst I was shopping I bumped into Daphne.

But get this, Daphne wasn't with Fred! She was with another man - tall, dark, kinda rugged looking - and not Shaggy! Very mysterious indeed! I thought I might see her and the mystery man in the CN club but none of the gang were there.

Lots of my friends were though - Top Cat, Dee Dee, Hong Kong Phooey, Huckleberry Hound, and Johnny Bravo was there with his mom (he's always hitting on me and he never takes the hint). See you next week and happy shopping!

Ciao!
